

General Certificate of Packaging Compliance and Legality

To Whom It May Concern,

This certificate confirms that all packaging products sold by Bagman.uk, including printed resealable bags, ziplock bags, smell-proof pouches, and future custom packaging designs, are intended solely as empty packaging materials for lawful commercial use.

The graphics and artwork used on Bagman.uk packaging are original decorative designs. These may include cultural, lifestyle, and artistic themes, including cannabis-related imagery, where such imagery is used solely as graphic expression and branding.

The products:

- Are supplied empty and contain no controlled substances.
- Are sold as packaging only.
- Are intended for lawful wholesale and retail distribution.
- Do not make medical, therapeutic, or regulatory claims.

Under current law in the United Kingdom, it is generally lawful to manufacture, import, distribute, and sell empty packaging materials and to print decorative artwork on such packaging, provided the products comply with applicable intellectual property and consumer laws.
